

• GOOD THINGS HAPPENING FAIRFIELD

ATTORNEYS ACHIEVE HONORS FROM THEIR PEERS

By Editorial Staff

Nov. 30, 2018 on the internet and Dec. 3, 2018, in print

Two partners at the Law Offices of Elovson and Tenore in Fairfield have been selected by their peers for honors under a program run by Thomson Reuters.

Linda L. Elovson, dubbed a Connecticut Super Lawyer for 2018, provides legal services in matters related to estate planning and administration, wills and trusts, probate and conservatorships and elder law, including asset protection. She is founder and principal in the law firm and has been the recipient of many awards and has earned an AV Preeminent rating over the last 10 years under the Martindale Hubbell National Peer Review. Elovson serves on the Alzheimer's Association's Public Policy Sub-Committee; Executive Committee, Elder Law Section of the Connecticut Bar Association; and the Estate and Probate Section of the state Bar Association.

Christine M. Tenore was named one of the Rising Stars for 2018. This selection is based on an evaluation of 12 indicators, including peer recognition and professional achievement in legal practice. As with her partner, she represents clients with issues related to elder law, estate planning and probate.

Selection to Rising Stars is limited to a small number of attorneys in each state. Tenore is one of a few attorneys to achieve the distinction, earning the respect of peers as one of the top-rated attorneys in the nation.

She is a member of the Board of the Wilton Social Services Commission and is an active member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, Connecticut Chapter, Fairfield County Bar Association, Greater Bridgeport Bar Association and the Connecticut Bar Association's (CBA) Trusts & Estates Sections as well as the Executive Committee of the Elder Law Section. She is a member of the Greater Bridgeport Elderly Services Council and the Connecticut Geriatrics Society.